Glasgow Corporation Double Decker Bus (1959)

60 Seat Daimler Chassis, Alexander Body Genuine Corporation Bus

Our genuine Daimler Glasgow Corporation Bus 'The Old Daim' was first registered on 1/11/1959 and based at Langside garage. It was later moved to Newlands garage in 1965, followed by Knightswood. In April 1975, it was transferred to Aberdeen Corporation and served there for about a year and a half. Eventually, it was sold to Greyhound of Arbroath and primarily used for school contracts until 1980.

We purchased the bus in 2020 and since then have completed a number of external and internal restoration jobs including a full engine rebuild.

The open-back double-decker bus design was dropped in the 1960s in favour of a closed cabin. Gone was the well-known chant: "Come oan, get aff!" shouted by conductors.

With far more character than modern buses, the Old Daim is perfect for weddings, offering a unique touch to Glasgow and Lanarkshire events.

This bus is very popular for weddings and has also been used in TV & Movie productions, music video's, catalogue and social media photo-shoots, private functions, commercial events and funerals.
