Ford Galaxie NYPD Police Car (1969)

Blue & White with fully functional Roof Beacon & Siren

The NYPD (New York City Police Department) relied on the 1969 Ford Galaxie as a formidable patrol vehicle. Its imposing presence and robust performance made it ideal for urban policing.

The Galaxie is a classic American with its blue & white livery, adorned with the iconic NYPD insignia it commanded respect on the streets on New York. It's rotating beacon and extremely loud siren are fully functional.

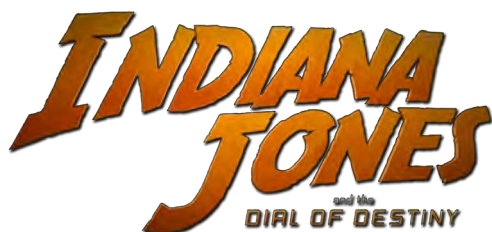

Although the well known blue & white colours were not introduced until 1973, many of the late 60's cars were painted on changeover to the new scheme. Equipped with a potent 5.2 V8 engine, it could swiftly navigate the busy streets.

This particular car was used by Lucas Films & Disney in the filming of the movie Indiana Jones and The Dial of Destiny which was partly filmed in July 2021 on the busy streets of Glasgow, not New York.

As well as TV and Movie Production, this car is ideally suited for Weddings, Party's, Retirements, Corporate Events, Catalogue or Advert Photo-shoots.
