Plymouth Belvedere (1957)

Red with white roof and side stripe

The Plymouth Belvedere, part of the Belvedere series, was in production from 1954 to 1970. The '57 Belvedere exuded elegance and power, capturing the spirit of the era. Its design epitomized the futuristic '50s aesthetic, with bold lines, chrome accents, and distinctive tail-fins.

The Belvedere was available in a number of different engine options but ours is fitted with a 301cu/in 5.0 litre V8 and has a 'push button' 3 speed automatic gearbox.

The 2 door version of the Belvedere, the 'Fury' gained recognition in the early 80's as 'Christine' in the Stephen King horror movie.

Our Belvedere was used in the filming of the Indiana Jones and The Dial of Destiny which was partly shot in Glasgow during July 2021.

This car is a popular wedding choice but can be used for TV and Movie Production, Retirements, Corporate Events, Catalogue or Advert Photo-shoots.
